

OPJU EXAM Regulation to Use or Attempt Unfair Means and disorderly conduct at an examination by a candidate.

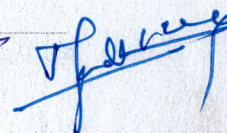

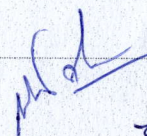

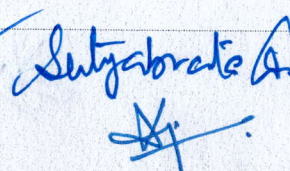

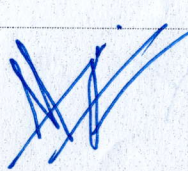

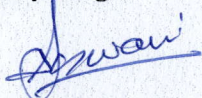

As per the first ordinance of OP Jindal University, any candidate who uses unfair means as given here or types to use such methods as given here to act in a manner to gain any advantage in the exam will be punished as stated in these rules/regulations.

After consulting the requests of invigilators, examiners, statements of the accused candidate and relevant papers the committee constituted for the purpose will categorize the act and recommend the punishment.

Definitions

- 1. University-OP Jindal University.
- 2. Candidate- A person authorized to appear in an examination and has been issued an admission card.
- 3. Person appointed for exam work- A person appointed by the university or Controller of Exam to work/help in the conduction of the examination. Such as invigilator, superintendent, assisting staff in the examination water man, peons etc.
- 4. Debarred - A candidate not allowed to appear in the examination, since candidate will not be permitted in an examination, he/she cannot be admitted in the Exam Hall till the candidate becomes eligible to appear in the examination.
- 5. Present examination - Present examination is that (semester/annual) examination in which candidate have been caught using UFM. It means only theory examination and the marks obtained in practical, mid semester and sessional will remain as it.
- 6. Next exam- Examinations to be held in future including Theory, Practical, Sessional, Midterm.

The punishment will be decided on the basis of seriousness and the nature of classification will be made.

Category - D

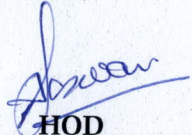

Getting impersonated by any other person in examination or candidate refuses to hand over the materials or papers may be used for copying or destroying the proof i.e. materials/paper by any manner or trying to through them away or refusing to sign on UFM proforma all such candidates will be put under this category.

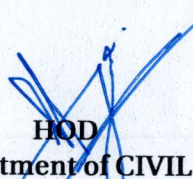

Punishment: Present examination will be cancelled in full and the candidate will be debarred for next two examinations.

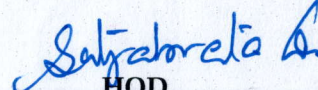

Category - E

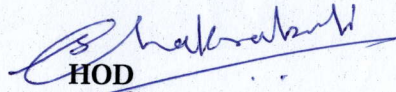

If a candidate tries to disrupt or actually disrupts the examination or forces others to leave examination hall or tries to forcefully obstruct the others not to appear in the examination will be ground in this category. A candidate misbehaves or uses abusive language or beats or fights or threatens to harm or tries to bribe or actually bribes an invigilator, examination superintendent or a person appointed for examination work at the centre or carries any weapon in the examination centre or takes any dog or other animal or birds in the exam hall will be booked under this category.

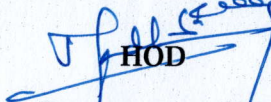

Punishment: Cancellation of present full examination and debarred for next three examinations and the case will be reported to the police for criminal proceedings against the candidate.

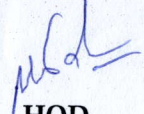

HOD
 School of Management

HOD
 Department of CIVIL

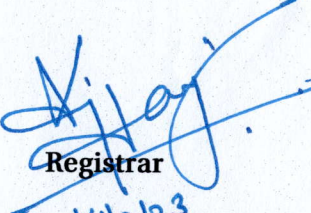

HOD
 Department of MME

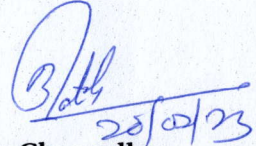

HOD
 Department of Mechanical

HOD
 Department of EE

HOD
 Department of CSE

Controller of Examination

Registrar
 14/2/23

Vice Chancellor
 28/01/23